Years 3/4/5 and 6 Assembly
Well done to 3-6 for a wonderful assembly on Tuesday. That is the last assembly of the term.

OSSA Athletics
A reminder that the OSSA Athletics carnival is next Wednesday 30th March for all students K-6. All students will need to be dropped off at Waratahs Sportground by 9am and picked up by 2:30pm. Be sure to get your name ticked off at the Canobolas tent when you arrive.

Band Workshop
Notes were handed out to some band students last Friday regarding the planned Band workshop and invitation to perform at the Botanic Gardens. Could permission notes be returned by tomorrow, Thursday the 24th.

Bell Shakespeare
Bell Shakespeare will be performing their adaption of Shakespeare’s ‘A Midsummer Night’s Dream’ at Canobolas Public on the 6th of April. ‘Bottom’s Dream’ is a creative performance that guides students through plot, character, language and creative and critical thinking activities. The performance is always very entertaining and we look forward to it. Notes will be handed out after Easter.

Lake Canobolas Cross Country
On the last day of term Canobolas will be holding our annual cross country practice/ fun run. In previous years it has always been a nice finish to the term and we hope this year will be another success. Canobolas students will catch the bus there and be picked up by parents from Lake Canobolas at the finish of the day.

OSSA Sporting teams
Congratulations to Phoebe G, Charlotte, Lola M and Breanna for making it into the OSSA Girls’ Soccer team. The Boys’ Soccer final trial is on the 5th April.

Sporting Triumph
Congratulations to Ben Anderson who was selected as part of the Western Region Primary Schools Cricket team. They will play in the NSW state championships in Term 4. Congratulations also to Harry Buckland who was selected as a finalist to trial for the Western Region Rugby team.

Transiton High School Science
Please note permission notes will go out today for Year 6 students to attend Transition Learning Lab at Orange High School in Term 2. Please ensure notes are returned by Friday the 1st of April.

Harmony Day
Thank you to Mr and Mrs Wright who visited Canobolas on Monday to contribute to student understanding of Harmony Day. Pat and Warwick fascinated the students with Aboriginal stories, artifacts and information about how food was collected.
I wish all families a happy and relaxing Easter holiday break. It’s a lovely time to enjoy the beautiful Autumn weather.
